

Course Formats

See page 2 for an example of each type of class listing.

A In-Person (Face-to-face)

- Classes meet on the Toledo- and Findlay-area campuses.
- This can include lecture or lab courses that meet on campus.
- Course sections have a designated building and room number. Example: HH 127, EC 151
- Course sections have a designated day and time. Example: M W 12:30PM - 1:45 PM

B Hybrid

- Classes meet partially in-person and partially online.
- Course sections will show a designated building and room number. Example: HH 127, EC 151
- Course sections will have a designated day and time when on campus. Example: M W 12:30PM - 1:45 PM

C Synchronous (Online courses that meet at a set time each week)

- The instructor will meet via Blackboard at set times each week. Students are expected to log into their Blackboard at the set time. This format provides a setting similar to an in-person class and enables real-time interaction between instructor and students.
- Course sections will have a designated day and time. Example: T 6:00PM- 8:40PM

D Asynchronous (Traditional online courses)

- Online courses that do not meet at a set time.
- Students work on their course work material at their own time and there is no requirement to access the class session at a given time. Students should be aware of deadlines in regards to their assignments. Please see your syllabus for more information.

E OwensLink (Course that blends in-person and virtual learning)

- Classes meet on the Toledo-area and Findlay-area campuses.
- Course sections have designated building and room numbers. Example: HH 127, EC 151
- Course sections have a designated day and time. Example: M W 9:30AM - 10:45AM
- Students will meet on campus, but will also meet with students via videoconferencing from a different campus.
